DON'T FORGET TOWELS, BLANKETS, OR TOASTY WARM BATH ROBES
FOR WET ROLLERS.

IMPORTANT DATES TO REMEMBER

1. Tues. Aug. 12th — This is the last official day of classes. It's hard to believe summer went so fast!
2. Wed. Aug. 13th — You are all invited to a FREE lumberjack show. Shauna will be hosting the show and the BBC will be filming so we'd like to see you all here for this fun event.
2. Sun. Aug. 17th, 2 pm — THIS IS IT!!!!!!
Alaska Log Rolling Championships at 2 pm
 - All competitors must be at the pond and signed up no later than 1:30
 - All competitors should wear their Coho shirts but it really isn't necessary
 - All competitors must roll in their age categories
 - All participants must be registered Coho's who have been to practice at least 5 days during the log rolling season.
 - This event is free to the public so invite everyone you know!

It's been a great year and we are so proud of your kids and the progress they've made in spite of some awful weather. We appreciate their enthusiasm and their extraordinary team spirit. Head Coach Joel, all of our lumberjack coaches, and the "parent volunteers" who shiver & shake in the cold pond to make sure the kids get to roll have been so amazing & supportive. There are no words to convey our sincere appreciation to all.

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU...

It is a well know fact that lumberjack coaches love cookies! Chocolate chip, peanut butter, oatmeal raisin... any kind will warm their tummies & their hearts.

Individual photos are also ready to be picked up.

Thank you to Rob & Zella Scheer and their entire staff for allowing us to roll at the Great Alaskan Lumberjack Show arena. We sincerely appreciate your contributions to our team.
